

A "Hostess" Poem

This has never happened to me before
But it could be snowing at your front door.

Instead of playing in jewelry,
And having lots of fun;
We could be making "SNOWBALLS",
And wishing for the sun.

So get your advanced orders,
It's insurance you know.

And guarantee's free jewelry
Even if we can't have a show!

More likely than not
You'll get to be a hostess.

With jewelry galore –
Maybe you'll get the most-est!
Your eyes will be "TWINKIE-LING"
When your new things you see.

You'll be as a "CUPCAKE",
What a fashion plate you will be.

One thing is for sure –
We'll have a "PEACHY" time.
Even though I'm not too good with a rhyme!

So, book a home show tonight
You won't be sorry.

And the next time you go out,
Jewels, you won't have to borrow!

1. Fill a silver tray with Hostess Cupcake goodies...
 - 1 Snowball
 - 1 Peach Pie
 - 1 Twinkie
 - 2 Chocolate Cupcakes
2. Add foo-foo such as curling ribbon and hot glue holiday wrapped candies onto packaged goodies.
3. Write your giveaway items on small pieces of paper and tape to the bottom of each cupcake.
4. At booking activity time, read your silly poem and then the play basic "Pass or Play". As you go to each guest say "Would you like to be a 'Hostess'?" (Hostess Cupcake get it).
5. You decide if they take your goodies home or not. They do have an expiration date on them and will begin to look expired!
6. Don't forget to take your giveaway items to your show!!!
